

SUNY in 60 Schedule

What's New at SUNY? | September 30

A new academic year brings new initiatives and some changes. Join us for an overview of updates to the 2021 application process and learn about document enhancements for EOP. We will also review the test optional policy and veterans fee waiver, as well as resources to help your students succeed in our virtual world. Bring your questions!

Presenter:

Cheryl Perrillo, Assistant Vice Chancellor for Enrollment Services / SUNY System Administration

What Are SUNY Colleges Looking For? | October 7

As we navigate the fluidity of an ever-changing admission process - amid test optional changes and the suspension of Regents Exams - SUNY admission professionals will discuss their plans for assessing applicants. Our goal is to prepare you for advising students about what our colleges will be evaluating when reviewing applications.

Presenters:

Judith Berhannan, Dean of Admissions / Stony Brook University

Kandi Geibel, Director of Admissions and Enrollment / Alfred State College

Mark Yacavone, Assistant Vice President for Enrollment Management / SUNY Cortland

College Search Best Practices | October 14

Finding the right fit begins with your help. In a year of paradigm shifts – from NACAC code of ethics changes, remote learning, and suspension of exams to reduced AP exam times and ever-increasing announcements of test optional policy rollouts – your role is even more important. These new changes, combined with the traditional college search challenges, can be overwhelming. Our goal is to provide solid resources, websites, and action plans that you can use and implement.

Presenters:

Dean J. Reinhart, Ph.D., Associate Director of Admissions / Buffalo State College

Finding Community College Success | October 21

Many students are beginning their four-year degrees at community colleges. Join us for an insider's perspective about how academically prepared SUNY community college transfer students are when they transfer to SUNY four-year institutions. This session will feature a lively discussion between SUNY transfer admissions counselors and SUNY community college representatives.

Presenters:

Karen Brown, Executive Director of Admissions / SUNY Oneonta

Ryan Donnelly, Assistant Director of Admissions / Stony Brook University

Lisa Jones, Dean of Undergraduate Admission / SUNY New Paltz

Michael Roe, Associate Dean of Enrollment / Dutchess Community College

Dave Steiner, Associate Director of Recruitment / SUNY Fredonia

Supporting Student Mental Health | October 28

Lifestyles, backgrounds, and socioeconomic factors, as well as significant life changes, politics, family, academic pressure, relationship issues, and money can all impact a student's transition to college and contribute to changes in their mental health. Join us for an overview of services and supports available to students now and as they transition to life in college. Together we'll explore skills necessary for supporting students and families, while developing ways to keep students engaged and successful as they prepare for post-high school options.

Presenter:

Cailley Wayman, Substance Abuse and Mental Health Counselor / SUNY Brockport
